Five Little Polar Bears

Five little Polar bears sleeping on the ground.
The first one said, "Let's go hunt around."
The second one said, "I'd like to find some fish."
The third one said, "Berries are my wish."
The fourth one said, "Here's a bug on a limb."
The fifth one said, "Let's go for a swim."
Flash went the lightning! Down came the rain!
And the five Polar bears hid in their cave again.
